

GEN2 EXHIBIT

FOR

Evolv Express®

This Gen2 Exhibit for Evolv Express® (“Gen2 Exhibit”) is a part of and incorporated into the Customer General Terms (“General Terms”) or the Service Terms for Evolv Products (the “Service Terms”), to the extent applicable, and apply to your (“Customer”) subscription to and use of the Express Products (as defined below). Capitalized terms not defined in this Gen2 Exhibit are as defined in the General Terms.

The Express Products available to Customer are described herein. Subject to Customer’s compliance with the General Terms or the Service Terms, the Express Product Schedule, and all associated Documentation, during the Express Term, the Express Products shall be provided to Customer pursuant to one or more Order Documents entered into by Customer and (i) Evolv, or (ii) an authorized reseller of Evolv Products (“Reseller”). For clarity, the terms of this Gen2 Exhibit shall only apply to use of the second generation of Express Products.
